KINGDOM MISSION

As we conclude our annual focus on the kingdom of God, this series will equip us to practically live out the call to make disciples and reflect God’s kingdom wherever He has placed us. As parents, grandparents, children, bosses, employees, neighbors, friends, co-workers, and congregants, we are all a part of God’s mission to partner with Him in revealing His kingdom to the world. As we go, Jesus promises that He will guide us, strengthen us, empower us, and be with us as His disciple makers.

¹¹ Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. ¹² We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. ¹³ For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵ and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

¹⁶ From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. ¹⁸ All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹ that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹ For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

— 2 Corinthians 5:11-6:1 (ESV)

Our Mission & Vision Williamsburg Community Chapel is an interdenominational family of faith called to make disciples of Jesus Christ by: meeting people where they are on their spiritual journey (🔗 connect), getting people into God’s Word and God’s Word into people (🌱 grow), and preparing believers for works of service to foster unity and maturity in the Body of Christ (🙋 serve). — MAT’T. 28:19-20, EPH. 4:12-13

THE GLOBAL LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Thursday and Friday, August 9-10, Worship Room

Whether at church, school, business, or home, you are leading people and projects every day. You have influence. You are leading in a culture that is constantly changing and redefining itself. Leadership takes perseverance, dedication, and a commitment to stretch your mind, expand your heart, and use your God-given gifts to impact your world in real and powerful ways for God’s kingdom.

You are invited to gather with thousands of leaders across the world for The Global Leadership Summit. Come be a part of this annual simulcast event designed to stretch and challenge you through world-class speakers and practical leadership training.

Visit the spotlight table in the Main Foyer after this morning’s service to find out more information. Special pricing applies to all Chapel attendees who register by Tuesday, June 26. If you have any questions, please contact Cathy Hellier, 941-1203, chellier@wcchapel.org or visit online at wcchapel.org/gls.
