CHAPEL BULLETIN

KINGDOM VALUES

This fall we are studying Jesus’ first teachings on the kingdom of God in the Gospel of Matthew. It is a section of Scripture we call the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus described God’s kingdom as one that stands in contrast to the world. It is a kingdom in which its citizens, the followers of Jesus, live a life marked by a new set of values and behaviors. The Sermon on the Mount depicts what human life and human community look like when they come under the gracious rule of their true King, Jesus Christ.

As we study, we are asked to examine ourselves (inwardly and outwardly) to see how we are living and reflecting these kingdom values. If we allow Jesus to lead us, we discover a greater dependency on Him and a greater freedom from the world. Ultimately Jesus teaches that life in His kingdom is abundant life.

Our Mission & Vision Williamsburg Community Chapel is an interdenominational family of faith called to make disciples of Jesus Christ by: meeting people where they are on their spiritual journey (🔗 connect), getting people into God's Word and God's Word into people (🌱 grow), and preparing believers for works of service to foster unity and maturity in the Body of Christ (🙌 serve). — MAT'T. 28:19-20, EPH. 4:12-13

Chapel Prayer Gathering

Tonight (Oct. 22) from 6:30–7:30 p.m., Woodward Hall
Join others in the Chapel family for a time of prayer. We will gather together in small groups to intercede for our church, our city, our country, and our world. You don't have to pray out loud if this makes you uncomfortable. All are welcome.

Friday, Nov. 3 and Saturday, Nov. 4 • This is a great opportunity to hear from our partners who serve in Spain, Nicaragua, Ukraine, and Central and Southeast Asia and who will be hosting our 2018 mission trips. The conference will give a more in-depth insight into the areas in which these missionaries serve and how they are serving. Come and hear how you could join one of the trips and partner with and support global outreach. For more information, please visit the spotlight table in the Main Foyer after the service. You can register for childcare (6 weeks-Kindergarten) online: wcchapel.org/missionconference.
