In honor of Veteran's Day yesterday, we say thank you to all our veterans and active duty military who have served or are serving at home and abroad.

Condolences: We would like to extend our prayers and sympathy to the following families:

- the McDonough family on the passing of Gloria's husband, Michael
- the Scherbing family on the passing of Beth's brother, Doug Shada

Prayer for Sutherland Springs, Texas: This past Sunday, a gunman shot and killed 26 people and injured 20 more as they worshipped at First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, Texas. This kind of tragedy moves us to a deep sense of sorrow for the families and the community who have been directly impacted by this clear act of evil. In addition to sorrow, we should also be moved to a deep posture of prayer. While we do not always have answers to the questions that are being asked, we do have the only true and lasting source of hope: Jesus Christ. Please pray for our brothers and sisters in Sutherland Springs to experience God's comfort, strength, and grace at this time.

Rejoice with those who rejoice, (and) mourn with those who mourn.

— Romans 12:15

CHAPEL BULLETIN

KINGDOM VALUES

This fall we have been studying Jesus' first teachings on the kingdom of God in the Gospel of Matthew. It is a section of Scripture we call the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus described God's kingdom as one that stands in contrast to the world. It is a kingdom in which its citizens, the followers of Jesus, live a life marked by a new set of values and behaviors. The Sermon on the Mount depicts what human life and human community look like when they come under the gracious rule of their true King, Jesus Christ.

Throughout our study, we have been asked to examine ourselves (inwardly and outwardly) to see how we are living and reflecting these kingdom values. If we allow Jesus to lead us, we discover a greater dependency on Him and a greater freedom from the world. Ultimately Jesus teaches that life in His kingdom is abundant life.

WILLIAMSBURG COMMUNITY CHAPEL

WHAM:
Advent Family
Celebration

Saturday, Dec. 2, 4–5:30 p.m., Main Foyer
Families, please join us as we have a mission for “each one to reach one!” In follow up to our first WHAM event, we’d like families to continue to reach out to others and invite at least one friend or family to our third annual Advent Family Celebration. Part of our time will include making a gift for our Envoy nursing home friends whom we visited in October. This is a time to experience the Christmas story and enjoy fun activities to celebrate the birth of Christ. Register online: wcchapel.org/registration

Child Dedication is an opportunity for parents to publicly and personally commit to raising their children in a manner that honors God and for our community of faith to join in that commitment.
