Trinity Sunday: Today the Chapel recognizes Trinity Sunday and celebrates the unity of our triune God. Our prayer is that our church would reflect the unity of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; and that as people witness the unity we experience, they might understand God's character on a deeper level. As Jesus prayed in John 17:21, "...that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

Condolence: We would like to extend our prayers and sympathy to the following families:

- the Johnson family on the loss of Yonkoo's father, Young Sun Yun
- the Smethurst family on the loss of their relative, Karisse Schilling
- the VanderLoon family on the loss of Ted's sister, Alice Huizinga

"So here's what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him." — Romans 12:1 (MSG)

The Bible has much to say about how we steward the resources God has entrusted to us. For every message series we will highlight one verse that relates to both the theme of the series and our reasonable response to give back to God, who gave everything for us.

We began our annual focus on the Gospel in the fall with a study of Romans, examining Paul's clear presentation of the Gospel, that Jesus died so we might live (Romans 3:21-24). In this series, we will return to Romans to see the practical applications of the Gospel for daily living. The Chapel's late Pastor Emeritus, Dick Woodward, called this the "Gospel in Reverse." If the Gospel teaches, "Jesus died that we might live," the Gospel in Reverse teaches, "We die that Jesus might live in us." Paul writes, "I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God..." (Romans 12:1). This is the Gospel in Reverse: we die, Jesus lives. As we study Romans 12-16, we will grow in our understanding of what it means to offer ourselves to the One who offered Himself for us, that we might experience and share "the Gospel in Life."

Hosea: Unfailing Love Changes Everything
by Jennifer Rothschild
 Ladies, please join us this summer for a seven-week study! We believe that the community found in groups is invaluable, and new insights are revealed when we study God's word together. Register online: wcchapel.org/women

SMALL GROUPS
 Since some small groups take a pause for the summer, remember to be intentional by making one of these simple investments in your group: commit to praying for one of your group members daily, send out a monthly update to your group telling them about your summer, or babysit for another couple in your group so they can enjoy a date night out. For more summer small group tips and ideas, visit: wcchapel.org/sgresources
