STUDENT MINISTRY

It has been an exciting summer witnessing all that God did on and through each of our Mission trips! To see full highlight videos from each trip, please visit wcchapel.org/smsummervideos. As the fall season quickly approaches, we would love to help you get plugged in if you aren't already! For more information about small groups and upcoming events, please contact Madeline Duke, 941-1564, mduke@wcchapel.org.

SMALL GROUPS Chapel-Wide Study

At the Chapel we believe that we grow as disciples of Jesus when we pray, study God's Word, worship, share God's Word, and serve together. These practices take root when we commit to the intentional relationships found in small groups. The testimony below is an example of one such relationship.

"In small group, I feel a call to be more obedient and accountable with my brothers. The purpose is to grow in our understanding of Scripture, and so pursue our maturity in Christ. Learning and sharing with others is vital. Small groups tend to balance our mind and behavior towards one another.

Pursuing spiritual growth is easier with mentors and friends pushing you.

Peter said, 'Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope you have' (1 Peter 3:15). Every day we have this opportunity to share God's Word, and we must be prepared. This community experience led me to get baptized and to profess my faith publicly."

— Afonso Alves

This fall existing and new groups will begin the Chapel-wide study which will follow the Sunday morning sermon series. This is a great time to get into a small group for the fall! For more information, please contact: Evan Muro, 941-1575, emuro@wcchapel.org or visit wcchapel.org/smallgroups.

"The highlight of this mission trip was time spent with the children. These children clearly valued relationships, and we had a lot of fun playing together and getting to know each other. We got to share Bible stories that the kids had never heard! My joy was made even greater by interacting with my own children at the end of each day as they shared how they had seen Jesus that day. The differences between the U.S. and Nicaragua were obvious. What wasn't immediately obvious was how similar our lives are. I heard Sylvia's testimony, and it sure sounded a lot like mine. My husband, Aaron, heard Fernando's story, and it sure sounded a lot like his. God showed me that He is moving in His people near and far. He's at work and in His timing. He's bringing His people together for His purpose."

— Rodelle Williams, NICARAGUA

"The highlight of my recent mission trip to Spain was the hospitality that the people of Picassent showed us. I was blown away at their eagerness to allow us to interact with their kids during the day at basketball camp and then their openness to worship with us each evening. We met in small groups with the members of the church, and through that time God showed me that despite my broken Spanish, He enabled us to overcome the language barrier and communicate. The people were receptive to God's Word regardless of the messenger. God confirmed again that anyone can share His Good News."

— Ted Polk, SPAIN
