Summer Reading Check-In

You are invited to the Main Foyer to discuss or ask any questions about our Summer Reading Challenge. Reading plans are available at the Information Desk in the Main Foyer or online at wcchapel.org/summerreadingchallenge.

Condolence: We would like to extend our prayers and sympathy to the Jones family on the passing of Linda's father, Eunice Davis.

Staff News: Isaiah Thomas finished the Student Ministry summer internship and transitioned to his new role as our Pastoral Intern this week.

Our Mission & Vision MATT. 28:19-20, EPH. 4:12-13

Williamsburg Community Chapel is an interdenominational family of faith called to make disciples of Jesus Christ by: meeting people where they are on their spiritual journey (👤 connect), getting people into God's Word and God's Word into people (🌱 grow), and preparing believers for works of service to foster unity and maturity in the Body of Christ (🙋 serve).

"The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, 'He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.' " – 2 Corinthians 9:6-9 (ESV)

The Bible has much to say about how we steward the resources God has entrusted to us. For every message series we will highlight one verse that relates to both the theme of the series and our reasonable response to give back to God, who gave everything for us.

Letters from Paul

In the middle of the first century there was a man named Saul who lived out a radically transformed life. He was the chief persecutor of the church who became the chief architect of the church. He sought righteousness through works, yet began to teach that righteousness comes through faith alone. He moved from abhorring Gentiles to advocating for their place among God's people. He pursued status and power but came to embrace weakness, persecution, hunger, and imprisonment.

What happened? He encountered the resurrected Jesus. We learn about this encounter in the book of Acts. He began to go by the name Paul and went on to write 13 letters that would appear in the New Testament. It is in these letters that we hear Paul's call for all people to place their faith in Jesus and experience the ultimate transformation from death to life.

This summer we are studying 11 of Paul's 13 letters. Please consider joining us in our Summer Reading Challenge to deepen our engagement with these letters and God's Word for our lives. Reading plans are available in the Main Foyer and at wcchapel.org/summerreadingchallenge.
