Service of Communion

Benediction: Luke Kincaid, Pastor of Student Ministry

You are invited to meet with members of our Prayer Team at the platform steps following the service. In keeping with James 5:14, Elders will be available in the Prayer Room each Communion Sunday to pray for anyone who is sick.

Note: Gluten-free communion bread is available at the Information Desk.

Staff Note: Lead Pastor, Travis Simone, and his family are on vacation visiting relatives in Virginia Beach.

Agape Offering: As you leave today, you will see baskets for the monthly Agape offering. Donations to the Agape Fund are used to help people in crisis, within the Chapel or in the community, who are struggling to pay for shelter, food, electricity, or other critical needs.

Flowers: The flowers in the Main Worship Room today are given in memory of Tina Harrell's father, Dig Sen.

Note: All Chapel facilities will be closed Thursday–Friday, Aug. 6–7, while staff and ministry leaders attend the Willow Creek Global Leadership Summit conference. Any emergency calls will be handled promptly through our answering service at 757-229-7152.

CHAPEL BULLETIN • AUGUST 2. 2015

GENESIS 1-11

Sermon Series Description: Genesis means "beginnings." This title is derived from the opening line of the book, which is the opening statement of the whole Bible: "In the beginning..."

The Chapel's late Pastor Emeritus, Dick Woodward, used to describe the significance of starting at the beginning like this: "God tells us like it was, so we can know how it is." To understand the way God works now, we must understand the way God worked then. In order to understand our nature now, we must understand what happened to our nature then. To understand our future hope, we must understand God's ancient plan.

In Genesis 1-11, God tells us "like it was." By returning to our beginnings, we will better understand our relationship with Him, our relationships with others, our sexuality, our propensity to overwork, overeat, overindulge, and our ability to deceive ourselves. God tells us "like it was" concerning our brokenness, but He also tells it "like it was" concerning His love for His creation, His plan for salvation, and the lengths He would go one day to reconcile all things to Himself.

Join us this summer as we study Genesis 1-11, contemplating our beginnings and listening to God telling us "like it was," so we can all know "how it is" and how it will be for eternity.

SM MISSIONS EXPERIENCE

Tonight, Sunday, August 2 from 6:30–8 p.m. Main Worship Room

We invite you to join us to hear testimonies and see highlight videos from every Student Ministry mission team about God's transforming presence. A dessert reception in the Main Foyer will follow. Below is a taste of what you'll hear tonight!

North Carolina Mission Trip Recap

A middle school team recently returned from their week-long trip to Weaverville, N.C. They dug trenches for a new septic system, installed pipes, and painted the entire exterior of a house for a family that was financially unable to repair their home. The family thanked the team with these words, "Just when you reach the very end and doubt if God even hears your prayers, 70 people show up at your home with their arms stretched open wide." God truly changed the hearts of so many people on this trip!

Nashville Mission Trip Recap

A high school team went to Nashville, Tenn., where they split into teams that served alongside multiple organizations throughout the city. They served the elderly at a nursing home, handed out food to the homeless, and played with kids at a boys and girls club. At the end of the trip, one of our kids commented on how he saw Jesus in the kids, and how he realized that they were the same age as his little brother whom he rarely serves back home. He was challenged to continue being compassionate wherever God asks him to be, which was a common theme for the entire team.
