MATT. 28:19-20, EPH. 4:12-13

Williamsburg Community Chapel is an interdenominational family of faith called to make disciples of Jesus Christ by: meeting people where they are on their spiritual journey (👉 connect), getting people into God’s Word and God’s Word into people (🌱 grow), and preparing believers for works of service to foster unity and maturity in the Body of Christ (🙋 serve).

2015–2016 Annual Focus: The Gospel
Fall Sermon Series on The Book of Romans
The Chapel-wide study guide, For Everyone Bible Study Guides: Romans, is available in the Main Foyer.

Staff Note: Susie Calapodas, Director of Early Childhood Ministry, will leave the staff on Sept. 1 to spend more time with her family. She has loved the Chapel’s youngest congregants and served their parents for over 17 years. Our “Miss Susie” will be missed!

BIBLE STUDY

GENESIS 1-11

Sermon Series Description: Genesis means “beginnings.” This title is derived from the opening line of the book, which is the opening statement of the whole Bible: “In the beginning...”

The Chapel’s late Pastor Emeritus, Dick Woodward, used to describe the significance of starting at the beginning like this: “God tells us like it was, so we can know how it is.” To understand the way God works now, we must understand the way God worked then. In order to understand our nature now, we must understand what happened to our nature then. To understand our future hope, we must understand God’s ancient plan.

In Genesis 1-11, God tells us “like it was.” By returning to our beginnings, we will better understand our relationship with Him, our relationships with others, our sexuality, our propensity to overwork, overeat, overindulge, and our ability to deceive ourselves. God tells us “like it was” concerning our brokenness, but He also tells it “like it was” concerning His love for His creation, His plan for salvation, and the lengths He would go one day to reconcile all things to Himself.

Join us this summer as we study Genesis 1-11, contemplating our beginnings and listening to God telling us “like it was,” so we can all know “how it is” and how it will be for eternity.
