WORSHIP LEADER: LAUREN DAIGLE

Growing up in Lafayette, La., singer-songwriter Lauren Daigle has always had a penchant for singing, but it took a long time for the dream of pursuing music full-time to cultivate in her heart since, “...in Louisiana a career in music is not the most logical choice.”

Two seasons as a contender on American Idol, signing a contract with Nashville’s Centricity Music, co-writing with some of the industry’s best songwriters, and continuing to lead worship in Louisiana have all contributed to Lauren being one of the brightest upcoming artists in Christian music today. Her deepest desire is to write music that opens doors for people to encounter her Savior. “If I can help people, even if it’s with a three-minute song, just experience God, you never know how that will change the rest of their day or the rest of their life,” she offers. “I just want people to be able to experience Him.”
