

- Key Dates Definition: A Key Date is a date or event that requires extensive collaboration across staff teams. Key Dates should be considered when scheduling other events throughout the year. A staff member scheduling anything that conflicts or competes with a date listed in the Key Dates Summary needs to have a discussion with their Leadership Team member before moving forward in their planning process.
- Essential Dates: An “Essential Date” is a date or event that requires full staff participation. The Leadership Team views these dates/ events as crucial to the development and onsamepageness of our staff team. (Vacation/leave requests for these dates require advance approval from the full Leadership Team.)
