

Questions for Small Groups | April 28, 2019

Anyone leading the group this week may find additional Small Group Leader Resources at <http://www.wcchapel.org/resources-for-small-group-leaders/>

Explore the Spirit — Jesus and the Holy Spirit

Focus Passage: Luke 3:21–22; 4:14–21; John 20:19–22

Context: Luke 3:21–4:30; Acts 2–5

Corollary Scriptures: Matthew 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; John 16:7; Acts 1:8, 12–14; Romans 8:11

Sermon Recap: The Holy Spirit empowers the exploration. The Big Idea is that the same Holy Spirit that empowered Jesus during His ministry on earth empowered the early Church in her ministry, and empowers those in whom He dwells today—every born-again follower of Jesus the Messiah. The Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts reveal parallels in the Holy Spirit’s empowerment of Jesus and of the early Church at a number of points: baptism, commissioning to the Kingdom of God mission, overcoming temptation, gospel and geographic movement, empowered preaching, ministries of justice and mercy, and joy. We can expect that same Holy Spirit that empowered Jesus and the early Church to baptize us, commission us to Kingdom of God mission, give us power to overcome temptation, carry the gospel to those who haven’t received it, proclaim Bible truths effectively, reflect Jesus’ concern for justice and mercy. Moreover, we can have joy in the process even in the face of opposition and mistreatment.

Introductory Comments to Leaders

We begin the “Explore the Holy Spirit” series this week that will take us through June 9. I pray that the Holy Spirit will use these messages and the accompanying small group materials to acquaint us more intimately with the person and work of the third person of the Trinity. As we discuss receiving of the Spirit, walking in the Spirit, and the gifts of the Spirit hopefully your group members will be presented with a wonderful environment to deepen their understanding of those who hold different biblical interpretations on those topics. It will be a great chance for you as a leader to help your members put the gospel on display as we celebrate our unity in the midst of diversity.

In this first message, we hope to drive home the point that the Holy Spirit enables Holy Spirit-indwelted disciples of Jesus to continue the ministry and mission of Jesus. We’ll see that the early church’s experience of the Holy Spirit paralleled Jesus’ experience of the Holy Spirit during His earthly ministry. Because the message connects some dots between passages in Luke, John, and Acts, we’ve included passages in a chart format this week to help with continuity. I’m anticipating that some questions may arise about the Trinity over the course of this series. I have placed a resource entitled “Trinity Diagram and Helps” on the Groups Resources page to provide some biblically orthodox help. Also, the sermon included a quote from Francis Chan’s, Forgotten God. There is a 7-session study on Forgotten God that your group members may access with their Right Now Media account at <https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/Series/145>.

If you are aware of anyone in your group that may not have a saving relationship with Jesus as Savior and Lord, make sure to get to question 4 in the application section.

Background Helps

- Between the Ascension and Pentecost – What we know of as Pentecost (deriving from 50 days) began as the Jewish feast of Shavuot or “The Feast of Weeks.” It was a harvest celebration that was to occur the day after seven weeks after the first day of Passover—50 days. Acts 2 describes how the promised Holy Spirit came upon the disciples on the Day of Pentecost. Acts 1:3 refers to Jesus stating, “He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God.” Some resources say the 7 weeks were counted from the first day of Passover while others state it was counted from the first Sabbath day after Passover. When we take into account that Jesus was in the tomb until the 3rd day after the first day of Passover and that He spent 40 days with His disciples after rising from the dead, it seems we have a window between 7 and 10 days between His ascension of Jesus and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The difference of the few days depends on whether you count Pentecost from the first day of Passover or from the Sabbath day after Passover.

Hook: Pick a Question to Help Ignite Conversation

When you were a child, what did you think when you heard mention of the “Holy Ghost” or the “Holy Spirit”?

Look—Observing and Interpreting:

READ – John 20:19–22. Also, to better see the relationship between Jesus’ relationship with the Holy Spirit and the relationship of Christians in the Church to the Holy Spirit, please read and discuss each set of parallels and their associated Bible references in the chart below, treating each numbered pair as a “question.”

Parallels Between Jesus’ Relationship with the Holy Spirit in Luke and the Church’s Relationship with the Holy Spirit in Acts
Luke	Acts
1. Jesus’ birth comes through the Holy Spirit “overshadowing” Mary (Luke 1:35). His ministry begins when the Holy Spirit descends upon him at his baptism (Luke 3:22).	The church in Acts is born through the baptism of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1–4).
2. Jesus’ first sermon explains how the Spirit had come upon him to set the captives free (Luke 4:16–19).	Peter’s first sermon explains how the Spirit’s power had come upon the church to testify to Jesus (Acts 2:14–36).
3. Immediately after his baptism, Jesus is driven into the wilderness to be tempted by Satan. Luke notes that he did so “full of the Holy Spirit,” which was part of the reason he so successfully resisted the temptations (Luke 4:1).	The apostles are baptized in the Spirit and almost immediately get dragged in front of the Sanhedrin, in whom the power of Satan is at work. The Holy Spirit fills them with boldness so that they can respond to their accusers (Acts 4:8).
4. Jesus gets sent out by the Spirit to travel around Israel, preaching the gospel (Luke 4:16).	Jesus tells the apostles that the Spirit will take them around the world, preaching the gospel (Acts 1:8).
5. Numerous followers prophesy in the power of the	Peter tells the first church gathered at Pentecost that the evidence that the Holy Spirit is on them is their Spirit about Jesus (e.g. Luke 1:39–45; 2:25–35).	prophesying about Jesus by the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:17–18).

6. The Spirit of God fills Jesus to preach the gospel (Luke 4:14). He tells his disciples to depend on the Spirit for that same filling (Luke 12:11–12).	The disciples experience this filling frequently (Acts 4:31; 7:55).

Took: Applying the message to our lives.

1. What parallels with the Holy Spirit’s work in the life of Jesus and in the early Church can you point to in your relationship with the Holy Spirit?
2. How have you embraced the Holy Spirit’s commission to engage in the Kingdom of God mission? If you were not aware that you have been called to that mission, how can you open yourself to accept it moving forward?
3. When you are being tempted, what are some practical ways the Holy Spirit empowers you to overcome the temptation?
4. If you have not experienced any of the evidences we’ve discussed of the Holy Spirit’s empowering in your life, it would be helpful to ask yourself, “Do I have assurance that God has begun a new creation in me through His Spirit? Have I been spiritually born again and received the Holy Spirit?” If you do not have that certainty, consider these verses:

1 John 5:13 – I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life.

What does John want his readers to know? What is the basis for their knowing?

Romans 8:9 – You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

What does Paul say about those who do not have the Spirit of Christ dwelling in them?

If you do not have that assurance of a saving relationship with God through Jesus, please ask your group members how you can be certain that you are born-again.

Prayer: Please spend some time praying for one another.

What we hope members glean from the passage:

The main point we hope for group members to walk away with is that the same Spirit that empowered Jesus’ earthly ministry also empowered the early church’s ministry and empowers the Church and individual members today. We hope participants will be evaluating their own lives and ministry in view of the indwelling Holy Spirit and the power He brings to do what we cannot do in our own abilities.
