

The mission statement of our church comes directly from Matthew 28:18, where Jesus calls us to “make disciples.” In the context that Jesus first uttered this command, it was a radical statement. No one made disciples; they made rabbis. When Jesus calls us to make disciples, He is calling us to engage in a perpetual process. We must learn how to be disciples, that is, how to follow Jesus for the long haul.

In the book of Psalms, we find a group of passages known as the “Songs of Ascents.” Psalms 120-134 were sung as pilgrims journeyed to Jerusalem to “ascend” the steps of the Temple. They were written to keep people on track mentally, emotionally and spiritually as they traveled toward placing God’s presence at the center of their lives. Centuries have passed, and the content of these songs still has the wisdom to nudge us back on track as we journey toward having God’s presence, Jesus Himself, at the center of our lives. The themes they touch on are timeless. The practices they advise are enduring. The wisdom they provide is durable. We will read them, pray them and even sing some of them as we seek to make sure our discipleship process stays the course for the long haul.

OUR MISSION & VISION MATT. 28:19-20, EPH. 4:12-13
Williamsburg Community Chapel is an interdenominational family of faith called to make disciples of Jesus Christ by: meeting people where they are on their spiritual journey (🔗 connect), getting people into God’s Word and God’s Word into people (🌱 grow), and preparing believers for works of service to foster unity and maturity in the Body of Christ (🙏 serve).
