

Williamsburg Community Chapel Volunteer Position Description

Position: Middle School Midweek Room Leader
Reports To: Middle School Associate
Date Prepared/Revised: May 2016

Qualifications/ Requirements

The qualified candidate will profess and live a life that reflects a personal faith in Jesus Christ and a commitment to the mission of Student Ministry and the Williamsburg Community Chapel. Each leader should have a passion for helping Middle School students and their fellow leaders move forward on their spiritual journeys.

Position Summary

The Midweek Room Leaders help execute the mission of Student Ministry and the Williamsburg Community Chapel by helping middle school students and the Midweek Leaders: CONNECT to Jesus and community; GROW in Christ; and SERVE Jesus, His community, and the world. Specific duties include:

- Participation (active, enthusiastic, and consistent) at Midweek:
 - Consistent weekly attendance at your own small group
 - Consistent weekly attendance at Chapel Sunday Morning Services
 - Consistent weekly attendance at Middle School Midweek, Leader Training, and Large Group Events
- Owning and executing on the responsibility that comes with leading. Not participating solely through attendance, but leaning into the responsibility of having younger students (both middle and high school) looking to you as a guiding force on their lives.
- Growing and maturing in your personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- A humble and supporting attitude towards the SM staff, fellow room leaders, and the Chapel leadership (staff, pastors, elders) and their vision for ministry.
- To foster unity in our group by committing to: approaching others with concerns, conflicts, and frustrations; being approachable by staff members and other leaders; stopping gossip and division; and encouraging others as we serve in ministry together.

Estimated Weekly Time Commitment: approximately 4-5 hours

Personal Responsibilities

- Maintain a continued submission to the Lordship of Christ in every area of life. This includes making decisions and living a lifestyle that are both Christ-like and “above reproach,” understanding that my lifestyle is a model for others.
- Grow and mature in personal faith through the gaining of and obedience to scriptural knowledge.
- To have a humble and supportive attitude towards fellow leaders, as well as towards the Chapel leadership (staff, pastors, and elders) and their vision for ministry.
- To foster unity among students and peers by: approaching others, in humility, with concerns, conflicts, and frustrations; being approachable by staff members and other leaders, allowing those people to speak into my life; encouraging others as we serve together.