

Robert G. Topping, MBA, CFP®

Robert G. Topping, the founder and owner of Covenant Wealth Advisors has been a financial advisor since 1983. From 1985 to 2000 he was principal and owner of an independent financial planning and investment company. From 2000 to 2002, he was a principal with a large national, fee-only planning and investment firm that managed over $2 billion in assets. His area of expertise includes retirement planning, portfolio design and investment management.

Rob has taught personal financial planning at the Golden Gate University Graduate School of Banking and Finance in San Francisco. In addition, he is a volunteer with Crown Ministries, an interdenominational ministry involved with helping people in the area of finances and stewardship. He currently serves as a Deacon at the Williamsburg Community Chapel. He has also been on the board of directors for the Williamsburg Community Foundation where he served as treasurer.

He received his BA from the University of Virginia and his MBA from the College of William & Mary. He received his CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ designation in 1983.

Rob is a member of the Past Presidents Advisory Council of the Financial Planning Association of the National Capital Area having served as a past President of the Northern Virginia Society of the Institute of Certified Financial Planners (ICFP). The ICFP is one of two predecessor organizations merged into the Financial Planning Association. He has been listed by Washingtonian Magazine as one of the Experts Who Can Put Your Financial House in Order (based on peer recommendations).